IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Revising the courses of Pandits and Moulvis Examinations.

READ—

Government Order No. D. 10036—Edn. 209-26-2, dated 14th May 1927, passing orders revising the courses for the Kannada Pandits and Moulvis Examinations.

2. Government Order No. D. 3505—Edn. 112-29-2, dated 27th September 1929, issuing amendments to the rules for the Kannada Pandits and Moulvis Examinations.

3. Government Order No. E. 2975—Edn. 239-31-2, dated 27th January 1932, approving the resolution of the Local Examinations Board, re the deletion of the Second Language for the Mysore Upper Secondary Examination.

4. Correspondence ending with letter No. E. 2-847—32-33, dated 28th April 1933, from the Director of Public Instruction, stating that consequent on the issue of Government Order, dated 27th January 1932, deleting the rule requiring candidates to offer a Second Language for the Upper Secondary Examination, it became necessary to revise the rules relating to the admission of candidates for the Pandits and Moulvis courses, that it was considered necessary to revise the courses also, and submitting a set of draft rules for the purpose approved by the Local Examinations Boards, and adding that the extra cost involved would be Rs. 800 in a period of three years or Rs. 267 a year on an average, no provision on this account being necessary in 1933-34.

ORDER NO. E. 4335—EDN. 216-32-6, DATED BANGALORE, THE 23RD JUNE 1933.

Sanctioned. The revised rules as approved, are appended to this order. The revised courses of study will take effect from the date of the re-opening of the Training College in June 1933.

S. N. APPANNA IYENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
General Department.

ANNEXURE.

REVISED REGULATION FOR THE PANDITS AND MOULVIS COURSES.

1. The courses shall extend over four years and the examinations shall be held every alternate year, the first Final Examination under these Rules being held in 1937.

2. There shall be two examinations—An "Intermediate Examination" at the end of two years and a "Final Examination" at the end of four years.

3. School Candidates.—Admission to the Training College, Mysore, for these courses shall be made every other year.

4. Candidates for the Moulvis Course shall be chosen alternately for Persian and Arabic.

5. The qualification for admission to the Pandits and Moulvis Courses shall be a pass either in the Mysore Vernacular Upper Secondary or the S. S. L. C. Examination with Kannada or Urdu as Second Language respectively, provided also that for admission to the Moulvis Course, candidates should have taken Arabic or Persian as an additional subject in either of these examinations.

The President of the Local Examinations Boards, may, however, permit the admission to these courses of such candidates as have not passed either of these examinations but have passed an examination which, in his opinion, is equivalent to either of them. Such candidates should apply to the Secretary, Mysore Local Examinations Boards, Bangalore, for the required permission before the 1st May immediately preceding the Selection Examination referred to in Clause 11 below.

6. Selection for both the courses shall be made by a Selection Examination arranged by the Principal of the Government Training College, Mysore.

7. The Selection Examination shall be compulsory both for departmental candidates (Teachers in Government service) as well as for others that may seek admission to these courses.

8. Candidates shall be admitted to these courses on the results of the examination held for the selection of candidates for admission to these courses.

9. No departmental candidates beyond the age of 35 (Thirty-five) years shall be permitted by the District Educational Officer or by the School Board Officer to sit for the Selection Examination.

10. Departmental candidates that do not pass the Intermediate Examination shall automatically be reverted to their original places.

11. The Selection Examination shall be arranged to be held in Kannada and Urdu for Pandits and Moulvis Courses respectively, in the Government Training College, Mysore, on the 10th June or the following day, if it happens to be a Holiday, every alternate year, commencing from the year 1933.

12. Private Candidates.—A candidate who has failed as a school candidate either in the Intermediate or the Final Examination, may appear for these examinations as a private candidate in subsequent years.

Others that possess the qualification prescribed for admission to these Courses in Para 5 above, may also appear for the examinations, by private study, provided they apply to the Secretary, Mysore Local Examinations Boards, Bangalore, before the 1st September immediately preceding the examination, for permission to appear as private candidates.
